

Since the ITU has eliminated morse code testing as a requirement to have Amateur Radio Privledges on 30 MHz or Lower The United States thru the FCC should expedite the elimination of code testing for United States licensed Amateur Radio Operators immediately.